

ELEVEN 21

Located in the center of downtown Toronto and bordering one of the most exclusive stretches of real estate in Canada, Eleven 21 is a high yield asset.

Bloor Street, home to the city's high-end shopping area, is a breath away from the business center of town. In the heart of this advantageous location, Canada-Israel acquired a stylish residential building which it redeveloped into an upscale condominium building of 140 residences. Rents in the area have doubled since 2004. All suites at Eleven 21 are rented out to young professionals who prefer life in the center of the most prominent area in Toronto.

